

FLOOD

At Its Height In St. Louis

From Twenty To Fifty Are Dead

LOSS TO THE RAILROADS WILL APPROACH $5,000,000.

THE RESCUE WORK CONTINUES.

Venice, Madison and Granite City are Buried in a Sea Only Roofs Being Above Water.

St. Louis, Mo., June 9—The flood situation remains practically unchanged this morning at its height.

The harbor boat Mark Twain left
St. Louis at 8 o'clock today for further rescue work in the devastated districts. The Annie Russell accompanied the harbor boat. The boats were stocked with provisions and clothing for the sufferers.

The rescue work done by the harbor boat and the Russell Monday relieved thousands of stricken tri-city citizens from suffering. The gauge at the foot of Market street showed 37.5 feet this morning. This is believed to mark the crest of the flood at this point. The police officials of East St. Louis reported today that the water had risen 8 inches on the east side during the night.

Much suffering exists among the tri-city refugees who have been brought to St. Louis. Women and children are sick and in want. There is much fever and several persons are seriously ill.

The number of deaths by drowning is variously estimated at from twenty to fifty. Following is a partial list of those believed to have lost their lives:

Henry Edmunds, farmer, Madison county.

Mrs. Thomas Shelton, Madison.

Seven employees of American Car &
Foundry co., unidentified.

Lonis Kinsner and wife, Venice.

Walter Achor, residence uncertain.

Mrs. Clifton and baby, residence uncertain.

W. Robinson, Edwardsville, drowned
at Venice.

City Attorney Robert Hagnauer, of Venice.

Wm. Beilhorn, deputy coroner of Madison county.

Beilhorn's son, both supposed to have been drowned at Venice.

Wm. Mattes, Poland, Newport.

Unidentified man drowned at Venice by falling from floating house.

Drowned in East St. Louis while playing about a raft yesterday:

Henry Schreiber, 15, St. Louis.

Wm. Kaing, 12, St. Louis.

Eddy Emig, 12, St. Louis.

James McKenzie, 14, East St. Louis.

The residence and business section of East St. Louis was still dry this morning the onslaught of the flood waters having been withstood by the united efforts of the citizens. Thousands of men are yet at work with wagons and shovels, strengthening the dykes.

The island, the railroad terminal of East St. Louis, is a scene of devastation. Expert railroad men estimate the railroad losses alone at from $2,000,000
to $5,000,000 today.

There has been no attempt at resumption of railway traffic between the east side and St. Louis. By means of steamers passengers and mail are transferred between Alton and St.
Louis.

Venice, Madison and Granite City
are buried in a sea. Here and there a roof and many trees mark the sites
of these three thriving little cities.
Vast manufacturing plants are flooded and closed. The towns are practically non-existent.

Though many thousand refugees
have been rescued and as many more have escaped to safety by their own efforts, hundreds remain in the stricken towns, flood washed garrets being their shelter.

Shortly before noon today East St.
Louis was in more imminent danger of further and immense losses than at any time since Saturday. At that hour the flood was rushing like a mill race against the Conligue embankment. The water was within 2 inches of the top of the embankment and rising. Thousands of men were at work on this dyke trying to save it. It protects the business section of the city and a big break in it would mean complete inundation of the business district.

Kansas City, Mo., June 9—The Missouri river will probably fall to the danger line tomorrow. It registered 23.7 feet this morning, showing the usual decrease of 2 feet.

GAS SHUT OFF.

Indianapolis Ind., June 9—Fully 3000
Indianapolis housewives are in a serious dilemma as a result of the discontinuation of gas Monday. It will require an army of carpenters and brick-masons several days at least to change
the flues so that other fuel than gas can be used. There has been unprecedented rush on the hardware houses
for stoves and artificial gas ranges.
The people had been warned repeatedly that the gas would be shut off but they can hardly realize that the luxury has vanished.

No More Two Steps.

Asbury Park, N. J. June 9—The National Association of Dancing Masters
now in session here, has decided to abandon the two step. In a lengthy address A. C. Worth of Milwaukee, declared that it was a "mongrel invention," and should be eliminated from all programs.

KNIGHTS

Pay Visit to McKinley's Tomb and Hold Appropriate Exercises—The Grand Lodge Meets.

Canton, O., June 9—The Ohio Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias convenes here today. Several thousand headed by the Grand Army band, made a pilgrimage to the tomb of President Mc-Kinley this morning and held appropriate exercises. President McKinley

EFFORT

Said to Have Been Made to Kidnap
Gov. Taylor and Take Him to Kentucky.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 9—Charles Finley, former secretary of state of Kentucky, a refugee from his own home because of the charge of being implicated in the plot for the assassination of Governor Goebel, says that he and ex-Governor Taylor are constantly under surveillance.

He says a plot to kidnap Taylor recently was foiled by the overconfi-dence of a man who visited Taylor's office and told him he might be kidnaped. Taylor recognized him as an ex-convict. Finley says it was learned that the ex-convict and two other men had planned to take Taylor from his home and carry him to Madison, where the river would be crossed. A relay of horses had been engaged.

Finley says he understands that recently someone telephoned the Mayor of Louisville from here and asked him if he would take charge of Taylor if he would land him on Kentucky soil.
He disclosed his plan and the Mayor refused to have a hand in it.

It was reported here that a former traveling salesman and a former policeman had planned to kidnap Taylor and that they were offered $25,000
any time they were successful, but the report could not be confirmed. The former policeman denied having had
and connection with the plot.

The men in this plot, it is understood, boldly went to Taylor's house after dark with a wagon and knocked on the door, expecting him to show himself, when he would be bound and gagged and carried off, but Taylor
happened to be away at the time.

The two Kentucky refugees are living as quietly as possible, and apparently are not afraid of being kidnaped,
but it is said they are always armed.

MOORISH

MOSQUE DESTROYED BY FRENCH ARTILLERY.

Artillery Bombarde Strongholds of Rebellious Natives With Melinite Shells, Killing Many.

Bein-Ounif, Algeria, June 9—In a bombardment by the French artillery
the beautiful mosque and hundreds of houses in Figuig, a stronghold of the Zenaga tribe, were destroyed.

The engagement continued 18 hours
when General O'Connor withdrew the forces to receive offers of submission.
Several natives were killed while not a man was lost on the French side.

General O'Connor commands the punitive expedition, consisting of four thousand men of the foreign legion,
and a strong force of artillery, armed with guns firing melinite shells.

The ramparts of the town were then 1,200 metres distant and like the houses which were half a mile behind them, built of compressed earth. From these hills the artillery made excellent practice, the melinite shells making a big breach in the ramparts and destroying a multitude of houses the inhabitants of which had fled at the first shots.

Finally the fire was concentrated on the mosque, which was much venerated and the edifice was blown to pieces.

This destruction of the mosque expected to have a great moral effect.

The Moors concealed in the palm groves, replied with artillery to the French bombardment, but without effect.

France has formally notified the powers that she has no intention of taking Moroccan territory.

General O'Connor was instructed to give the women and children of Figuig
an opportunity to leave the town before the bombardment.

A friendly Arab courier bearing a notification to this effect was killed while carrying the message.

FOUND A WIFE

Governor Bailey, of Kansas, Fulfills
the Promise Made Before His Election.

Topeka, Kan., June 9—Governor W.
J. Bailey of Kansas left yesterday for Kansas City by way of Atchison, where at the First Congregational church tonight he will wed Mrs. Ida B. Weed.
It was the Governor's intention to take a trip, but the flood and the cattle men's war in Cheyenne county will cause a delay.

Mrs. Weed, the bride-to-be, is a fascinating widow of about 35 years of age.
She is a native of Baileyville, Kan. the home town of the Kansas chief Executive. Since October 1, 1902, she has lived in Kansas City, where she was a clerk in the Parisian Cloak company's store.

The marriage of Governor Bailey will be the fulfillment of a promise he made before his election as Governor.
He said that if he were elected he would find a wife.

widely known hotel managers in this city died at the hotel Alms last night.

SHOWERS

Have a Good Effect on the Forest Fires
in Maine—Forty Houses Destroyed by Flames.

Houlton, Me., June 9—Heavy showers last night had a subduing effect on the forest fires between Millinocket and this place. The wind still heads from the southeast and blows strong so that the danger point is by no means passed. A report received here this morning says forty houses on the route from Van Buren to Frenchville, a hundred miles north, have been destroyed by the fires. At St. Croix, Bride's Mills and Smyrna
Mills, the fires are under complete control.

WHITE

Nervous After He Left Jett

Prisoners are Placed In Separate Cages

A MAN IN AN ADJOINING CELL INTIMATES

WHITE MAY IMPLICATE OTHERS.

Jett Said to Have Declared That His Friends Would Soon Come to the Rescue.

Jackson, Ky., June 9—Court convened at 9:30 this morning, but the trials of Curtis Jett and Tom White were not called. Upon consultation it was found that Elisor Jones had not returned from Magoffin county. Judge Redwine postponed the calling of the cases until 2:30 this afternoon.

A sensation was created in court today by the announcement of Venireman John Hoskins that he was sick and that he had been exposed to small-pox. When asked by Judge Redwine why he came knowing that he had been so exposed, he said Elisor Jones would not believe him, saying that he had heard such excuses before.
Hoskins was excused and has gone home.

Jackson, Ky., June 9—Curtis Jett
Tom White, the alleged assassins of J.
B. Marcum and Jim Cockrill, spent a bad night in the steel cage in the upper story of the jail last night. It was noticed that White was nervous
when he was placed in a separate cell
from Jett, and he soon broke down and wept bitterly, during which time
he muttered incoherently to himself.

A prisoner in an adjoining cell
says that White told Jett that he did not propose to be hanged like a dog while the men who procured the killing went free. Jett told him not to go on like that and said "It is all right.
I told them that they had to get us out and you may depend upon what I say. We will come out all right."

White made no reply and his sobs
soon died away and he fell asleep.

Jett has put on a bold front and in the court room he would be taken only as an interested spectator. Attorneys called at the jail early this morning and taking the prisoners into the jail
office, held a long private consultation with them.

A number of additional veniremen arrived from Magoffin county this morning for jury service. They rode a long distance some of them 30 miles and are much fatigued having ridden all night. J. B. Morgan a veteran, who resides on the edge of Magoffin county, near the Breathitt county line, said,
"I tell you women folks won't let men folks come here. They are afraid they will be killed. I know a dozen fellows in my neighborhood that have been hiding for a week, afraid they would be summoned to come to Jackson. It takes a little courage sir, I tell you."

United Mine Workers.

Wilkesbarre, Pa. June 9—President
Wm. Dettrey, of the Seventh district of the United States Mine Workers,
when asked if there was any foundation for the published reports that the call for the convention at Pottsville would be withdrawn if the operators accept Judge Gray's interpretation of the conciliation section of the coal commission's report, said that he had no intimation of any such action.

President Dettrey said that it is altogether improbable that the convention will be called off now. There are many questions of vital importance to the miners to be settled that the convention is necessary at this time.
The conciliation board trouble he said
was only one of the many important matters that will be taken up.

TO PRISON

NEGRO WAS SENT FOR LIFE FOR PETIT LARCENY

Because He Stole a Few Cotton Seeds.
Just Released—Judge and Jury—
men Dead.

Columbia, S. C., June 9—The laws of South Carolina have undergone a great change in the last 25 years. As an evidence of this fact Cato Gadsden, colored, after serving nearly a quarter of a century in prison for petit larceny, was this week granted a pardon by Governor Heyward. This is one of the most remarkable cases on record in this state. Gadsden has probably been punished more severely than any other man for a like offense.

Twenty-three years ago he was arrested in Beaufort on the charge of stealing cotton seed from another negro. Throughout his trial the negro protested his innocence, but he was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment—that being the penalty in those days. On November 15 1880
Gadsden was uniformed in felon's garb and placed behind the prison walls for the remainder of his natural life for the trivial offense of stealing a small quantity of cotton seed.

Feeling that his punishment had been sufficient, white friends of Gadsden in Beaufort interested themselves in the case and petitioned the governor for his release, setting forth that just after his conviction the law was radically changed, whereby a lighter sentence might have been imposed and the same might have long since expired. This plea, together with recommendations from the penitentiary
officials, one being to the effect that Gadsden had served a longer sentence
than any other convict in the prison,
resulted in his pardon.

The judge and solicitor before whom he was tried have long since passed away. The jury and the witnesses are dead. Grown gray in prison, the old-darkey now returns to the scenes of his childhood to make new friends and start life anew.

WARSHIP

To Protect the American Interests
Will be Sent to Chili by Uncle Sam.

Washington, June 9—Upon the receipt of a report from American agents
in Chili to the effect that the situation at Valparaiso is unsatisfactory owing to the recent social disturbances there the state department has requested the navy department to dispatch a ship to that point in order that American interests may be fully protected in the event of an emergency.

The navy department at first thought of sending the entire Pacific squadron
from San Francisco, but as Rear Admiral Glass has just brought his ships to California waters for repairs it was decided to order Rear Admiral Sumner commanding the North Atlantic station, to proceed at once with his squadron now at Montevideo through the straits to Valparaiso.

Orders were also telegraphed to Admiral Glass to be ready for sea in the event that Admiral Sumner's fleet is unable to get under way at once the Pacific squadron may be ordered to Chilean waters in its stead.

It is understood that the British government intimated a wish that American ships go to Chilean waters because of disturbances there in connection with the recent dock strike.

MACDONALD

Who is Wanted in Ohio, is Still in Prison in New York—Decision is Reserved.

New York, June 9—Thomas MacDonald the Zanesville (Ohio) merchant who is wanted on charges of larceny
after trust, in that city, is still in Ludlow Street jail awaiting the arrival of extradition papers. He was brought into court in Brooklyn yesterday before Judge Maddox, of the Supreme court on habeas corpus proceedings.
Assistant District Attorney Elder opposed his discharge, stating that there were other charges against MacDonald involving $25,000 beside the one on which he was held.

Governor Nash, of Ohio, had asked that he be held until he could be extradited, and Governor Odell had telephoned from Albany that the necessary papers were on the way from that city.

Justice Maddox took the papers in the case and reserved decision, remanding MacDonald to the custody of the sheriff. Officer W. M. Matthews of Ohio is here waiting to take Mac-Donald back to Delaware, Ohio.

BIG CONVENTION PROMISED.

Portsmouth, O., June 9—The State
Sunday School convention here promises to be the largest ever held in Ohio. Some 2,000 delegates are expected and hundreds are already here.
President W. A. Budaly of Cincinnati, arrived yesterday afternoon and was well pleased with the thorough preparations which have been made. The city is profusely decorated and the citizens are extending an enthusiastic wel-

here this morning reports great activity among the Russian forces in the far east. A great increase in the Russian fleet is reported and more ships it is expected will shortly be sent thither.

HORSE MEAT

Is Consumed in Great Quantities by the French—Thousands are Killed Annually.

Washington, D. C., June 9—How much horse meat is consumed in Paris
each year is told in a report just published by the State department from United States Consul Thornwell Hayes
at Douen. He says:

"It is stated at the Villejuit slaughter houses that 23,000 horses are killed annually and, at Pantin 7,500, making a total of 30,500. Of this number 10,500 are consumption of 19,500 in the city itself. The average weight of each horse is said to be 551.15 pounds. One third of this is composed of bone and sinew, which is sold as waste at four francs per 200 kilograms. There remains, therefore, 368.17 pounds of marketable meat to each horse, which would give a total consumption of 7,178,177.6 pounds annually.

MYSTIFIED

By the Strange Disappearance of Diz-ler and the Half Sister of His Wife.

Lima, O., June 9—The friends and relatives of Earl Ditzler and Miss Maude Medsker of Perry Township, are instituting a search for them, and are unable to account for their strange disappearance. Ditzler is the son of a wealthy farmer, and is married. He is about 35 years old, and is the father of five children. He received a large acrecage from his father, and has been making his home there with his wife and children. Miss Medsker is a half sister of Ditzler's wife.

Last Saturday Ditzler drove with Miss Medsker in his father's carriage to Lima. The young lady is a school teacher, and her purpose in coming here was to take the yearly examination.

The couple failed to return to Perry township Saturday night or yesterday and a search has failed to locate their whereabouts. Ditzler had with him checks for several thousand dollars.
One of them, said to have been given by Ditzler for $237, turned up in a Lima bank yesterday.

lic square of Brownstown for 30 years since the civil war. She was in good health, but preferred retirement.

BAER

On Stand Before Commission

Says Cost Of Operating Reading Road

HAS INCREASED SO THERE'S NO MONEY IN IT.

ALL EXPENSE ITEMS HIGHER

The Reading President Entered into a Technical Explanation on the Stand.

New York, June 9—President Geo.
F. Baer of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad company, was recalled to the stand when the interstate commerce commission resumed its inquiry today in the charges of W. R. Hearst that the coal carrying railroads are party to an unlawful combine to restrict competition and keep up prices in the coal business. Commissioner Proouty asked Baer several questions regarding the method of fixing the rate charged for transporting coal to tidewater. Baer explained that his company received $1.55 per ton for an average haul of 180 miles and at this rate
he claimed the company has not been able to make money. He declared that the money invested in his road
did not earn, as far as the transportation of coal was concerned the average rate of interest. He entered into an extended technical explanation of the difficulty in manipulating his railroad
so that coal trains would not interfere with passenger traffic. There was delay in unloading, he claimed, cars were loaded up, short hauls were the rule, the whole causing a heavy outlay and eating up the profits from the coal business.

"The cost of transportation," said
Mr. Baer, "has steadily increased during the past year enormously, although my company has not advanced its freight rates. In the matter of wages alone we can show an increased expenditure in 12 months of $1,200,000, and every other item of expense shows a corresponding increase."

POPE'S CONDITION

Rome, June 9—Despite reports to the contrary the Pope is far from well.
His holiness' recent indisposition has so weakened him that he stays in bed for the greater part of the day. While he rises for his regular audience each day, the prelate is so easily tired that often he can scarcely reply to or hear what his visitors say. Several times
the audiences have been curtailed,
and he has been taken to his apartments in a state of prostration.

ALIMONY

IN THE SUM OF $400 IS ALLOWED
EVERY MONTH

Mrs. Lutie M. Swift, Wife of Millionaire's Son, is Granted Her Freedom Also.

Chicago, Ill., June 9—Mrs. Lutie M.
Swift was granted a decree of divorce from her husband, Charles H. Swift, son of the late millionaire packer, Gustavus Swift.

Mrs. Swift was allowed $400 a month alimony. She secured the decree on the grounds of cruelty. The divorce proceedings which reached culmination have stirred Chicago society from the time of their institution. In her bill, filed about three months ago, Mrs. Swift declared that the defendant had struck her in the face three times, once in 1901 and twice in the jaw.

The couple had not lived together
since November 15, 1902.
As soon as Charles H. Swift learned the nature of the charges against him,
he entered a general denial and refused to discuss the case.
The decree was granted by default.

Lamberson, Wilton McCurdy, Adam Strome and James Slaughter.

By alleged prearrangement the convention immediately adjourned. Allen Marshall, defeated candidate for commissioner, led a revolt. One faction, headed by J. A. Finley and some policemen, tried to hold the doors of the city hall shut to prevent them from getting in, but they were swept aside. A rump convention was held, with former Sheriff Clark as chairman. Allen Marshall, Hugh Gamble and others spoke. They denounced "ring rule" and the new ticket.

YOUTH IS KILLED.

Coshocton, O., June 9—James Smith, aged 14, tried to scare his two brothers Eugene, aged 19 and Albert, aged 17, who were teasing him and pointed a gun at them. One barrel went off, instantly killing Albert and blinding and fatally wounding Eugene. The boys were the sons of John Wesley Smith, a wealthy farmer. The boys say there was no anger, but it was all in fun.

ACCUSES

ZANESVILLE MAN WITH MAILING OBSCENE LETTER.

Prominent Real Estate Dealer Who Was Recently Married is Placed Under Arrest.

Zanesville, O., June 9—Edward Welch, a prominent real estate dealer and former member of the city council has been placed under arrest by a United States marshal and taken to Columbus to answer to a charge of sending obscene letters through the mails.

Miss Laura Gray, a young woman of Springfield township, is the plaintiff in the action.

Welch, who is about 27, was recently married to Miss Lily Brown, of this city. Prior to his engagement and marriage to Miss Brown, Welch had kept company with Miss Gray and it was generally understood and is now alleged by Miss Gray, that he was engaged to marry her.

Suddenly the friendship with Miss Gray was broken off and he began paying court to Miss Brown, whom he subsequently married.

Miss Gray in the meantime threatened to institute breach of promise proceedings against Welch and it was during an exchange of letters between the two that Welch is alleged to have written certain obscene and insulting passages which were enclosed in the letter and mailed to Miss Gray.

The letters are now in the possession of the authorities and their contents are refused to the public.

Welch was arrested at his own home and placed in jail. His arrest caused an exciting scene at his home, his bride weeping hysterically. He was not permitted to offer bond and was not arraigned before the local United States commissioner, E. R. Meyer, being taken direct to Columbus for preliminary hearing and subsequent trial.

Welch was the Republican member of the last council and broke the tie by voting with the Democrats in effecting an organization of council by the Democrats. For this act he was "read out of the party" by Republican leaders and the local Republican press.

He is also a law student, energetic and considered honest and fair in all his dealings.

ARRESTED

On Charge of Fraudulent Use of the Mails—George W. Cupp is Now In Trouble.

Mansfield, O., June 9—George W. Cupp, proprietor of the Palace hotel, in this city, and publisher of a small magazine entitled "The Golden Thought," was arrested here by Deputy United States Marshal E. M. Fanning and taken to Cleveland to answer to the charge of fraudulent use of the mails.

In the fall of 1902 Cupp published in his paper offers to pay prizes aggregating $40,000 for the nearest estimate to the total vote cast in Ohio for the governor at the November election, two guesses to be allowed to each fifty cent subscription.

Many subscribers were secured, but so far as is known none received the prizes and upon complaints from a number of states the matter was investigated with the result that Cupp was taken in charge, largely upon evidence secured by Postoffice Inspector A. R. Burr of Fort Wayne.

OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

Delaware, O., June 9—On June 18th the Ohio Wesleyan University will celebrate its 59th commencement graduating 155 students. The commencement oration will consist of a bi-centennial address on John Wesley delivered by Dr. F. W. Gunsaulus of Chicago. The college is completing the most successful year in its history with an enrollment of 1181 students, and an increase in its endowment of $225,000.

DEATH NEAR GRANVILLE.

Granville, O., June 9—Walter, the seventeen year old son of Mrs. Augusta Rose, died at his home a short distance south of this place on Monday evening at 4 o'clock, after an illness of several weeks with brain fever. At this writing it is not known when the funeral will take place.

GOVERNOR

Decides Not to Entertain Charges Against Mayor Charles Bosch of Hamilton, O.

Columbus, June 9—Governor Nash today announced his decision not to entertain charges against Mayor Charles S. Bosch of Hamilton, for the reason that the alleged shortage of the Mayor in previous terms of his office cover a period prior to the taking effect of the provision cause. Bosch is on his fifth term as Mayor. It is charged that he has not accounted to the city for a $549 collected by the mayor's court.

K. OF P. MEMORIAL DAY.

Johnstown, O., June 9—White Cross Lodge, Knights of Pythias of Johnstown, celebrated Memorial Day Sunday very beautifully and appropriately. There was a large attendance of Knights and their friends and the graves of their dead brothers were decorated with beautiful flowers. Mr. F. B. Carter, chancellor commander, acted as master of ceremonies, and the memorial address was delivered by Hon. John J. Lentz of Columbus. It is scarcely necessary to say that the address was a master piece.

HUGHES TRIAL

Is Commenced at Columbus—Men are Summoned by Telegraph for Jury Service.

Columbus, Ohio, June 9—The trial of Ivor Hughes has been commenced in Judge Thompson's court. He is charged with using the mails to further a scheme to defraud. He was indicted with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miller and Attorney Thomas Steele, all of whom have been convicted. The venire was exhausted and Judge Thompson ordered a new venire drawn and the men summoned by telegraph. It is said Hughes has the best defense of all the cases. His attorneys will seek to show that he acted solely in the capacity of his client and that there was no conspiracy.

FELL FROM ROOF.

Condit, O., June 9—Jarvey Horn, a painter, residing in Utica, met with a very painful accident here on Monday afternoon. He was engaged in painting the church when he fell from the roof, sustaining a number of very painful bruises. Fortunately no bones were broken. He was taken to his home at Utica.

FINE GIFTS

ARE ARRIVING FOR THE BRIDE-ELECT, MISS HANNA

President and Mrs. Roosevelt Send Gold Dinner Set—Senator Makes Fine Present.

Cleveland, O., June 9—Gifts worth many hundreds of thousands of dollars are pouring in on Miss Ruth Hanna, daughter of Senator Hanna, who, on Wednesday weds Joseph Medill McCormick, son of the Russian ambassador.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt's gift has reached the Hanna home. It is a set of solid gold dinner coffee cups and saucers, perfectly plain, but worth a small fortune.

Mrs. McKinley sent Miss Hanna a vase of Italian work, costly and beautiful.

Gifts have already been received from practically all the United States Senators and their wives. There are mostly cut glass and silver.

A close friend of Mrs. Dan Hanna announced last evening that Senator and Mrs. Hanna have not yet decided what they will give Miss Ruth. A year ago, when Miss Mabel, her sister, was married to young Harry H. Parsons, the senator and his wife gave the couple a check for $50,000, and then built them a beautiful home.

It is said that the gift they will give their second daughter will be even a more handsome home than that of the Parsons.

WILL ATTEND WEDDING.

Washington, June 9—Postmaster General Payne and General and Mrs. Corbin left here for Cleveland to attend the wedding of Miss Hanna and Mrs. McCormick.

His Last Hope Realized.

(From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.) In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping up-on his claim, he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little worker of a complete cure, and he cannot help feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For sale by all druggists.

Happy Homes

One of the essentials of the happy homes of to-day is a fund of information as to right living and the best methods of promoting health and happiness. With proper knowledge, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and are of not less value than the using of the most wholesome foods and the selecting of the best medicinal agents when needed. With the well-informed, medicinal agents are used only when nature needs assistance and while the importance of cleansing the system effectually, when bilious or constipated, has long been known, yet until within recent years it was necessary to resort to oils, salts, extracts of roots, barks and other cathartics which were found to be objectionable and to call for constantly increased quantities.

Then physicians having learned that the most excellent laxative and carminative principles were to be found in certain plants, principally in the leaves, the California Fig Syrup Co. discovered a method of obtaining such principles in their purest condition and of presenting them with pleasant and refreshing liquids in the form most acceptable to the system and the remedy became known as—Syrup of Figs—as figs were used, with the plants, in making it, because of their agreeable taste.

This excellent remedy is now rapidly coming into universal use as the best of family laxatives, because it is simple and wholesome and cleanses and sweetens the system effectually without disturbing the natural functions and without unpleasant after effects and its use may be discontinued when it is no longer required.

All who would enjoy good health and its blessings should remember that it is the one remedy which physicians and parents well-informed approve and recommend and use and which they and their little ones alike enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all reliable druggists, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, in original packages only, having the name of the remedy—Syrup of Figs—and the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package.

DEMOCRATIC OPPORTUNITY.

Twenty years ago this fall, in 1883, the Democratic party of Ohio elected the lamented George Hoadley as Governor of Ohio. This was in the year immediately preceding a Presidential election, and when the general political situation was not nearly as favorable for Democratic success as it is this year. What the Democratic party did twenty years ago it ought to be able to do this year—especially as the circumstances are more favorable to Democratic success this year than than they were twenty years ago.

The Republican party has a great load of dissension and discontent to carry in Ohio this year that it did not have twenty years ago. Let us briefly enumerate some of them: The rank and file of the Republican party in Ohio today are thoroughly disgusted with the action of the recent alleged Republican State Convention, bossed by Mark Hanna and Boss Cox. The party almost to a man wanted Dick for Governor. Hanna compelled the convention to take Herrick as its candidate. The party wanted Gillett for Auditor of state and was opposed to Guilbert and third termism. Hanna and Cox forced them to swallow both, however. The Republican party wanted the old soldier element properly recognized on the ticket in the person of Captain Boothman. The bosses forced them to take Harding a civilian. Many in the Republican party are opposed to the extravagance of the municipal code; its creation of unnecessary offices and its opposition to home rule, and their opposition will be felt at the next November election. The Hanna element of the Republican party was opposed to the forced endorsement of Roosevelt this year, and they will be heard from next November. Take it all in all the Republican party in Ohio is in a far more chaotic condition this year than it was twenty years ago, when Governor Hoadley was elected Governor.

Fellow Democrats, we can, and we ought to make history repeat itself next November. With a strong organization, with acceptable candidates and with a proper platform, we can move the Democratic column forward between the divided ranks of the enemy, and elect the whole Democratic state ticket, including the Legislature, and thus hurl Mark Hanna from the seat in the Senate which he has so wrongfully usurped. Let's get together, fellow Democrats, shoulder to shoulder, and heart to heart, for the whole county and state ticket, and the victory will be ours.

We point with pride to the Licking county Democrats nominated by the Democrats, by a popular vote of the people last Saturday. It is a ticket that will bear favorable comparison with any Republican ticket that ever was or ever could be nominated. We ask careful inspection of the candidates on the ticket, one by one. We say that each man on it is honest, that he is capable, and that if elected he will serve the people faithfully. Above all, this is the Democratic ticket. Each man on it is a Democrat. He represents our political faith and principles the political faith and principles that are dear to us in life. The only way to advance that faith and uphold those principles is to stand loyally by the candidates that represent them, and this every Democrat will do next November.

The Democrats of Licking county have chosen their own ticket by their own votes. It will be found at the head of another column in this paper. They do not propose to let the Republicans of Licking county make their ticket for them by a little caucus at Buckeye Lake.

It will be a proud and happy day for W. D. Benner and for his constituents when he votes an everlasting "No" to Mark Hanna's request to be re-elected to the United States Senate.

Every vote for the Democratic ticket is a vote against trusts and imperialism, and every vote for the Republican ticket is a vote in favor of trusts and imperialism.

ANSWER IT HONESTLY

Are the Statements of Newark Citizens More Reliable than Those of Utter Strangers?

This is the vital question. It is fraught with interest to Newark.

It permits of only one answer. It cannot be evaded or ignored. A Newark citizen speaks here. A citizen's statement is reliable. An utter stranger's doubtful. Home proof is the best proof.

C. W. Manville, 257 West Main St., says—"The lagrippe left my kidneys in bad condition. They did not act properly. At the same time I suffered terribly with pain in my back just over the kidneys. I just about gave up trying anything in the hope of getting better, when with the natural desire to test a well-recommended remedy, I started using Doan's Kidney Pills, sold at Crayton's drug store. The results were decided and lasting."

STORY OF BOOTH'S BURIAL.

Basil Moxley, veteran doorkeeper at Ford's Grand Opera House in Baltimore, who has known all the theatrical celebrities of the last half century, declares positively that the body buried in Green Mount cemetery as that of John Wilkes Booth is the corpse of some other person, says the New York World.

Mr. Moxley was moved to break his long silence by the story that came from Oklahoma that a man who died there recently declared on his death bed that "he was really Lincoln's assassin. Mr. Moxley said: "Certainly the body buried in Green Mount was not that of Booth, for I was one of the pallbearers, and I can safely say to you that there never were two things in this world which resembled each other less than that body did John Wilkes Booth. I had known Booth all my life and was very close to the family. I saw the body several times. The hair on the dead man's head was of a reddish brown color, while Booth's was as black as jet.

"Mrs. Booth, the mother of John Wilkes, was naturally nearly prostrated with grief at her son's action and the stories of his horrible death in the barn and later the report that the government had taken charge of the body. In order that the affair might become a thing of the past as soon as possible, some friends determined that it would be best to bring the body here (Baltimore) and bury it in the family lot in Green Mount. Through these friends Mrs. Booth applied to the government for the body. This brought matters to a crisis, for I do not believe that John Wilkes Booth was ever killed in that barn, and if any one was slain it was some innocent man who knew nothing of the real assassin.

"At any rate, it was incumbent upon the government to furnish a body to make good its report that Booth had been killed, and it did so. Well, of course we were all very much surprised at first—the four of us who were selected as pallbearers. We concluded that it was better to say nothing more about it than to raise another hue and cry which might kill the mother, so we kept our discovery secret, consoled the mother and buried the body as that of John Wilkes Booth."

GERMAN EXPERTS

Say Hypnotism Won't Cure.

From Berlin comes the report that the commission of experts in mental diseases, appointed by the Ministry of Education to investigate the healing value of Hypnotism, pronounces it essentially worthless. In 1892 a commission of 8,358,000 people in every part of the civilized world declared that Dr. Burkhart's Vegetable Compound is a positive cure for Rheumatism, Catarrh, Constipation, Nervous Troubles, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Trouble and all diseases of the blood. "ESSAY ON TRUTH"

The following excerpts will partially show the character of a small work with the above title to be published sometime during the present year by M. R. Scott of this place.

"Nature is not only fond of hiding her secrets from our eyes, but she is full of mysteries and paradoxes and illusions—shall we also say delusions—wherewith she beguiles and interests and stimulates and educates us."

To our physical vision the surface of our planet is a plane, and although we know from the testimony of geographers and astronomers that the earth is a spherical or nearly spherical body, its rotundity is beyond the conception of our minds as well as the sight of our eyes."

"Our stomachs can not receive pure nutrition but we must take all our food in bulk, subjecting it to the mysterious process of digestion and assimilation and throwing off the excrement. Must not our minds go through a similar process before we can appropriate any truth whatever?"

"Our eyes cannot receive the direct rays of the sun, but must be content with reflected or borrowed light—may we not say the same concerning the eyes of our understanding in reference to the reception of truth?"

"In mathematical geography we assume that the earth has an equator that it has an axis of rotation, that it has two poles, two tropics and two polar circles, and certain parallels of latitude and longitude whereby we measure distances from point to point on its surface as well as the course of its revolution around the sun; but from the standpoint of objective fact, we know that there is no axis passing through the earth's center and that it has no equator or other circles on its surface, all these symbols having a reality in our minds alone."

"Not only does Nature hide the infinities of space from our eyes, but she will not permit us to know the essence of her thickest seed or flower, so it may be truly said that we cannot know anything as it really is. At best our knowledge of everything is only relative, not absolute."

"And the wider the horizon of our knowledge may become, wider and still wider will be the horizon of mystery."

And even if it were possible for us to understand the phenomena of Nature much better than we do, her bare facts and laws would no more satisfy our minds and souls than the bare earth without trees or plants or grass or flowers would satisfy our eyes. We must think and feel and imagine and aspire as well as know."

"What profit would we find in the study of Astronomy if the revelations of this science did not suggest to us that there is a gravitation of the stars for our souls as well as a gravitation of the earth for our bodies?"

"All children delight in fairyland, and the exercise of their imaginations with stories and legends and folklore is as essential to their mental—and moral—development as the exercise of their bones and muscles is essential to their physical development. And are we not all children in Nature's vast nursery and playground, with feelings and imaginations to be exercised and mental and moral natures to be developed?"

"All these things teach us not only that there is a spirit in man transcending his bodily senses, but that Nature herself is spiritual as well as material."

"Flower in the crannied wall,
I pluck you out of the crannies,
Hold you here, root and all—in my hand.

Little flower—but if I could understand
What you are, root and all, and all in all,

I should know what God and man are."

"When we enter the domain of Religion, it is well-nigh impossible to distinguish between what we know on the one hand and what we think and feel and imagine and desire on the other. Surely in the presence of the mysteries which here surround us it is not the assurance of knowledge that we need most, but the open mind, the bowed head, the pure and honest heart."

"That religion is most true and most divine which ministers in largest measure to the wants and desires and manifold aspirations of men's souls. Only by this sign can we know that any religion is a message from Heaven and that its teachers are prophets of the Lord Most High."

"Well was it said by the late Professor Tyndall that religion does not belong to man's knowing powers, but to his creative powers."

"While we may no longer look upon 'Heaven' and 'Hell' as places of reward and punishment, we have learned to see more clearly the effect which every good act and every evil act has upon our characters. And if we are not quite prepared to say that there is no salvation except character, we are as certain as certain can be that there is no salvation without character."

"The mind is its own place and in itself
Can make a hell of heaven a heaven
of hell."

"I sent my soul thro' the Invisible,
Some letter of that after-life to spell;
And by-and-by my soul returned to me,

And answered, 'I myself am Heaven and Hell.'"

And so forth—and so forth.

Mining at Great Depths.

In no other district in the world are active mining operations carried on at such a depth as in the Lake Superior copper region. The No. 5 shaft of the Tamarack mine is the deepest in the world, having attained a vertical depth of 4,940 feet, nearly a mile. Not far behind it is the Red Jacket shaft of the Calumet and Hecla, which is down 4,920 feet. Another deep shaft of the Calumet and Hecla is the No. 4 of the Calumet branch of the property. This is down 7,900 feet on an incline of a mile and a half. In view of the marvelous efficiency of the modern hoisting engine no considerations of a mechanical nature need limit the prospective depth of shafts.

The greatest obstacle to deep mining is the proportionate increase in temperature. In the Lake Superior copper district State Geologist Lake has ascertained that the temperature in the mine varies one degree for every 110 feet. The temperature in the deepest shafts of the Tamarack and Hecla varies between 85 and 90 degrees, and in view of these conditions it is evident that considerable depths can yet be attained in this section.—Chicago Chronicle.

Sea Power in the Sanctum.
The man who owns the office now
And dominates the place,
Who takes no orders from the chief
And dictates as to space,
Is he who has a breezy air,
Who talks about the sea
And writes, "The yacht Reliance Left the others on her lee."

He tells the city editor:
"I guess a page will do
You ought to see her windward work;
She's got a dandy crew.
Her sprinker was boomed to port
As pretty as could be.
You should have seen Reliance leave
The others on her lee."

No sailor is the city boss;
To him it is a Greek
He does his bawling in a scow
That's anchored in Hook creek.
And so he says "We'll go ahead;
We'll cut down stuff, by gee!
We must tell how Reliance left
The others on her lee."

The baseball man ain't in it now;
He used to be of course.
And he who runs the sporting page
Is only underboss.
The man with tan upon his face,
Who talks about the sea,
Is it, for he knows all about Reliance and her lee."

There is no reason why the casino at Idlewild park will not do almost a capacity business all this summer if capacity business all this summer if they gave us as excellent performances as the opening bill proves to be. Burton and Books in their sketch, An Evening at the Club, is clean refined comedy of the best brand. Harry Thorne and his wife with the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Clark present a one act drama of two phases of life closely contrasted in such a manner that the audience laugh from start to finish. The Holdsworths do a little of everything that vaudeville includes and make up a bright and amusing skit while the Troubadour Four and Halley and Meehan, are two acts that also come in for a goodly share of the applause which they rightly deserve. The program will remain unchanged for the entire week and the patrons who have seen the performances so far are the biggest advertisers that Manager Harris could have secured, for everyone speaks in highest praise of the attraction as well as the casino in general. DIVORCE

And Its Attendant Evils Called to the Attention of Vassar Graduates by Whitelaw Reid.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 9.—Commencement week exercises at Vassar College began last night with the delivery of the annual address before the Phi Beta Kappa by Whitelaw Reid. In the course of the address Mr. Reid said:

"Outside the immediate and inestimable effect on the family the conservative power of educated woman will naturally show its influence on social life. They will surely help to check its degradation. They will certainly correct the prevalent vicious conception of its real scope. From this degrading conception comes the constant craze for newspaper publicity and every other form of publicity. If the conduct of the so-called inner circles of society has sometimes seemed to justify this brazen uproar at their gates, so much greater the demand for the conservative influence and the real refinement that comes from the high training of superior women."

"When higher ideals do return, the powerful influence of educated woman will surely array as never before the best of their sex in compact, resistless phalanx against a social evil, alarming, degrading and demoralizing, which has steadily become almost too common to provoke surprise, the transformation of marriage from a sacrament of God into a thoughtless and headlong business or social arrangement to be dissolved almost at pleasure. Six hundred and fifty-four thousand persons divorced in this country in the last twenty years—such is the deplorable record on which Catholic and Protestant clergymen are already appealing for a union of all moral agencies to resist this downward rush of the multitude."

The New York public library has placed on exhibition at the Lenox building, Fifth avenue and Seventieth street, New York, a collection of manuscripts, maps, books and engravings illustrating the history of New York under the Dutch.

ABSOLUTE CURE FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

No Matter How Long You Have Had It. NAU'S DYSPEPSIA CURE—IT CURES THE CAUSE.
"For 20 years until within the last 15 months I have been greatly troubled with indigestion and have used a great many remedies without obtaining any permanent relief. About the 15th of June, 1900, I commenced using Nau's Dyspepsia Cure, and am pleased to say that I consider myself entirely cured of all stomach troubles. I have delayed expressing to my opinion of your valuable remedy until such a time has elapsed as to convince me of my entire recovery. At the time I began to use the Nau's Dyspepsia Cure, my health was in a critical condition and my friends had almost given up hope of my recovery, and I am satisfied in my opinion that had it not been for Nau's Dyspepsia Cure, I would not be alive to write this letter." Emerson's Best Dequest.

The best thing that Emerson has left us is his spirit, fine and high, stern and sweet. He took life in a royal way, and bore himself toward the eternal mysteries with serene courage and dauntless hope. His essays, which are his most characteristic work, have their chief value not as revelations of the moral order of life, not as disclosures of the final meaning of things, but as disclosures of his own spirit. There is in these essays an immense mass of truth, uttered in picturesque and memorable words. There is in them also an immense mass that is not true. The Emersonian hit and miss are upon every page, and side by side with a golden and perfect sentence one finds sonorous eccentricity. The origin of this strange compound of oracle and imposition in Emerson lies in the confessional character of his writing. He speaks from within, and his generalizations hit or miss according as his personal experience embodies a law of humanity or a mere idiosyncrasy. That Emerson speaks so often and so royally for man is his great distinction. That he speaks so frequently for the idiosyncratic, the isolated and vain is his chief fault. We have a right to hold him at his best, and through the richness and majesty of the confession we are brought face to face with the confessor. —Rev. George A. Gordon, D. D., in Atlantic.

WHILE WATCHING FIRE

Charles Slane Says a Pickpocket Tried to Rob Him—Affidavit Filed Against John O'Connor—Police Court Notes.

At 9:55 o'clock Monday night the Central fire department was called to the double house on South Fifth street between the canal and railroad, occupied by Phil Vogelmeier and family, and Mrs. Anna Costello and family. Fire had started on the back porch in a pile of rubbish, and burning up the side of the house got under the roof. The new chemical engine was used and worked to perfection, making the damage by water absolutely nothing. The fire was soon extinguished with a loss of about $50, which is insured.

During the progress of the fire, Charles Slane, the well known saloon keeper, was among the crowd of on-lookers. He felt some one attempt to get into his hip pocket, which was closed with a flap that buttoned over the pocket opening. He caught hold of the fellow, and held him for a moment, but released him. The pickpocket left the crowd, followed by Slane, who watched his movements. He went up the alley between Second and First streets, from the railroad to the canal and later came out and started west. As he got to the Pan Handle platform Slane took hold of him and in spite of his protestations, brought him up town and turned him over to Police William Howard. On the way to the station he threw away a paper which when found contained the dates of a number of shows and fairs during the summer.

He is a stranger in Newark, and undoubtedly a professional pickpocket. He gave the name of O'Connor, which is evidently fictitious.

Chief Bausch said Tuesday morning that in his opinion the fire was started by just such a man in order to get a crowd in which he could prosecute his nefarious calling.

Add pickpocket story... Tuesday morning Mr. Chas. Slane appeared before Mayor Critly and filed an affidavit charging John O'Connor with assault and battery. The preliminary hearing was set for 2 o'clock Wednesday morning.

James McGonniss arrested for drunkenness and assault on his wife, was fined the costs and given 10 days on the stone pile.

SEVEN FEET

The Height of T. M. Jones of This County—Here is What a Delaware Paper Says.

(Delaware Journal-Herald.)

Mr. T. M. Jones of Newark, the tallest man in Licking county, and one of the most lengthy gentlemen in Ohio, stopped off with his wife in Delaware, Thursday. Mr. Jones stands seven feet even, is straight as an arrow, but due to an ailment contracted in the army, only weighs 200 pounds.

He was born in Tuscarawas county, and his parents were Old Virginians. His father was a small man, but his mother was rather stout. The combined height of his six uncles measured over 37 feet. Due to his commanding appearances they were all appointed officers in the 7th Virginia regiment of infantry during the Civil war.

Mr. Jones is the father of eight sons each being over 6 feet tall and three of his seven daughters are of a similar height.

He served over three years in the Civil war, and was left to die on the battlefield at Chickamagua, having been shot through the neck. He was taken prisoner, recovered and later

PAWNEE BILL

FAILED TO ARRIVE IN TIME FOR AFTERNOON PERFORMANCE

But Parade Takes Place at 5 O'clock and the Big Bill is on Tonight
as Advertised.

Pawnee Bill's Wild West show failed to arrive here from Wooster, O., until about one o'clock this afternoon. At an early hour this morning several thousand people gathered on the Public Square to witness the parade, and as time wore on all sorts of rumors were set afloat. The crowd, however, was very patient, and many remained on the streets during noon hour, awaiting the arrival of the show. Shortly after one o'clock the last train arrived and the work of unloading and transporting the paraphernalia to the show grounds was begun. The show arrived too late for a performance this afternoon, but a big bill will be presented this evening. The parade will take place at 5 o'clock.

THURMAN

Says He is in Favor of Nomination of Senator A. P. Gorman for Presidency.

Columbus, O., June 9—Alien W. Thurman, one of the original free silver advocates, when asked Monday whom he favored for President, replied:

"Arthur P. Gorman, of Maryland. I said so a year ago, and as the time comes nearer, I am the more convinced that he will be the nominee and ought to be. We don't want any Bryans or Clevelandists nominated."

"How will Bryan regard the nomination of Gorman?"

"I don't know, and I don't care."

"Will any considerable number of Democrats favor the nomination of Bryan next year?"

"Oh, no. He will not be considered."

"But didn't Gorman stand a little too near Cleveland Democrats in the last two presidential campaigns to suit the Cleveland Democrats in the last two presidential campaigns to suit the west?"

"Mr. Gorman supported Mr. Bryan in both campaigns. He stands at the head of his party in Maryland and can carry New York if any Democrat can. No western man can carry New York. He is strong in the South and in my opinion, taking all the sections into consideration is the strongest man in the Democratic party today."

A SWELL BURGLAR

New York, June 9—A burglary, which promises sensational developments, was reported to the police today. About 4:30 this morning, Mrs. Mary McAllister, housekeeper for the family of L. E. Clark, of 21 West 47th street, a fashionable west side district, was awakened by a noise on the fire escape. Looking out she saw a man passing her window on his way to the roof with a bundle about his neck. Her cries aroused the neighborhood.

When the police arrived the burglar had disappeared, but on the roof was a table cloth in which were 200 pieces of silverware.

The police searched all the houses in the neighborhood, which includes the homes of Harry Belmont, Ogden Gould, Commodore S. Nicholson, Kane, and a number of other wealthy members of the "59," but found no trace of the marauder. Their theory is that the man is a "swell" burglar, who has a home in the district, and that he climbed over the roofs to that of the Clark home.

THE RAILWAYS

MAN WHO BOUND INFANT TO A B. & O. TRAIN

Convicted at Wilmington—Budget of Railway News of Interest, Both Local and General.

Wilmington, O., June 9.—Robt. Jones the colored man who was arrested here for binding his illegitimate infant to a B. & O. freight train last January, was convicted of the charge and was given a heavy sentence.

En Route to Savannah.

Nashville, Tenn., June 9.—About 250 railroad freight men from all parts of the United States left here yesterday on a special train for Savannah, Ga., to attend the annual convention of the American Association of Local Freight Agents' Associations. There were eight sleepers and a baggage car in the train. At Chattanooga the travelers were to be given dinner, lunched by the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway management.

Summer Uniforms.

All the B. & O. passenger trainmen and the baggage masters are now wearing their summer uniforms. They present a very neat appearance.

Pan Handle Engineers.

The Pan Handle has just received six more of the heavy H-6-A freight engines. Two of these are from the Altoona shops and four are from the Baldwin works. They have been divided equally between the Logansport, the Indianapolis and P. & S. divisions, all machines to go into service at once. The number of new engines going into service on the Pan Handle is thinning out the reserve list of engines and necessitating some promotions from one side of the cab to the other.

A Fine Number.

The May number of the "Book of the Royal Blue" is an especially interesting one, containing, as it does, autograph contributions from members of the "American Press Humorists" Association with their photographs. The "Book of the Royal Blue" published monthly by the B. & O. railroad company passenger department, is always interesting but this May number takes the lead. D. B. Martin, the manager of passenger traffic of the B. & O. is to be congratulated.

Local Railway News.

J. H. Milliken, formerly of Wilmington, has assumed the responsibilities of the position of telegrapher at Black Hand for the B. & O.
Frank McDaniel, foreman of B. & O. floating gang at Sonora, was in Newark Monday.
Pan Handle passenger train No. 3 had four cars of emigrants today.
Levi Ferguson, B. & O. contractor, at Farmington, W. Va., visited his family in Newark Sunday.
Ed. B. Woodward, B. & O. fireman, is off duty because of sickness.
C. H. Lehigh of the Pan Handle freight office, has returned from a trip to Cambridge Springs, Pennsylvania.
The Pan Handle stone masons are working at Huston, Pa., this week.
Brakeman Hukel purchased a fine horse at Butler Monday.
C. T. Wilson, foreman of the B. & O. concrete gang at Zanesville, interred his infant daughter at Greenville, Saturday. Death was due to pneumonia.

Worst of All Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala., "for three years," she writes, "I endured insupportable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For liver, kidney, stomach and bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. 50 cents. It's guaranteed by Frank D. Hall, druggist.

HUMOR

HE WASN'T JEALOUS.

But from what he said there was something wrong.
Characters: Guy Fenton, engaged to Miss Grey. Mrs. Grey (her mother).
Scene: Inside a carriage, driving home from a dance.
Time: 2:30 a. m.
Miss Grey sits opposite Fenton with a bouquet of flowers on her knee.
Mrs. Grey leans back in the corner asleep.

Guy—Delightful, was it not? Good floor, excellent supper and any number of pretty girls.
Ethel—I didn't enjoy it.
Guy (sarcastically)—Indeed! Not even while dancing with Captain Eli? Appearances are sometimes deceptive. Ethel—I was bored more than you can guess.

Guy—And yet you seem to have found his conversation sufficiently engrossing to keep him by your side most of the evening.

Ethel (flushing)—I never wish to see or speak to Captain Eli again.
Guy (wildly)—Even supposing Captain Eli proved unsatisfactory, you didn't appear to be in want of partners.

Ethel (dolefully)—The man I wished to dance with forgot to ask me, and (passionately) surely one has a right to expect one's fiancé to claim at least one dance. Captain Eli would not believe I was engaged to you. That was why—
Guy (interrupting savagely)—Your engagement sits so lightly on you that I am not at all surprised. You insisted on carrying another man's flowers. I therefore gave you the opportunity of enjoying his society as well as his gift.

(The flowers fall to the ground and Fenton, handing them to Miss Grey, says ironically:)

"I hope they are not hurt, as you prize them so highly."
Ethel (defiantly)—I didn't value them. You can throw them out of the window if you wish.

Guy (interrupting savagely)—Your envy. You must keep them as a souvenir of happy hours spent.

Ethel (tearfully)—Oh, won't you understand that I only insisted on carrying them because they matched this gown you are so fond of?

(Tableau.)

Asks Pardon.

Warden—He was the coolest and most thoughtful convict that ever broke jail.

Jenkins—That so?
Warden—Yes. He left behind him a note to the governor of the state begging, "I hope you will pardon me for the liberty I'm taking."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

The Dentist Was Kind.

"Did the dentist hurt you much, Elsie?" asked the mother solicitously.
"Yes, mamma," replied the small girl. "But he was very nice every time he did."

"Very nice? How do you mean?"
"Why, he always said 'Ouch!' before I could."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

They Were Different.

Out of Town Visitor (at the horse show)—I never in one place in my life saw so many really beautiful girls, or—Baltimorean (throwing a chest)—Certainly, miss, we pride ourselves on—
Out of Town Visitor (continuing musingly)—Or so many homely men.—Baltimore American.

Building Up a Practice.

"I hear that Dr. Sawyer attributes his professional success to his automobile."

"Yes. People thought he must have a very large practice to be able to support an automobile and a chauffeur, so of course they came to him. He's not a bad doctor, either."—Judge.

As It Never Happens.

First Small Boy—W-what are you c-cry-cryin' for?
Second Small Boy—C-cause my m-mother c-cut off my c-curlis. W-what are you c-cry-cryin' for?
First Small Boy—C-cause my m-mother d-didn't have t-time to wash my u-uck.—Chicago News.

Too Much For Him.

"Have you ever made bread before, Marie?"

"Oh, yes. I used to make it for my father until his doctor made me stop."—Chicago American.

He Understood.

"How do you pronounce this word, my dear?" he asked pleasantly. "Isolate or is-isolate?"

"Either way is correct for you," responded his wife tartly.—Chicago Record-Herald.

REV. DR. BUCKLEY'S BELIEF

He Expects to Meet and Converse in Heaven With Departed Souls.

The Rev. Dr. James M. Buckley, editor of the Methodist Advocate and a leading member of his denomination in New York city, made the startling declaration recently in addressing several hundred ministers during a memorial meeting in honor of the late Bishops Randolph Sikes Foster and John Fletcher Hurst, former chancellor of the American university at Washington, that he fully expected to meet the two eminent divines in the hereafter and to recognize them, says the New York American.

Dr. Buckley had no sooner made this declaration when he was assailed by a chorus of questions from his ministerial hearers.

"How do you know?" shouted a dozen ministers at once.
"From the New Testament," responded Dr. Buckley. "I shall recognize some manifestation of them. I do not say that I shall meet and recognize them in the physical body, but as it has been my misfortune not to have known either Bishop Foster or Bishop Hurst on this side of the grave I hope and believe we will meet and converse on the other side."

Dr. Buckley was asked later, during the spirited discussion that followed in the wake of his remarkable statement, if he believed he would come face to face with such souls as Dante, Shakespeare and John Wesley.

"It is one of the tenets of our creed," he responded, "that we shall all meet those who have gone before us into the undiscovered country, and I see no reason why we should not hope to meet even such souls as Shakespeare, Dante, Wesley and others in the future life. If you will turn to Corinthians, upon which I found my belief, you will find: 'But some man will say, How are the dead raised up and with what body do they come?' Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened except it die, and that which thou sowest thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat or of some other grain. So also is the resurrection of the dead."

So spirited became the discussion that several ministers left the room, it being asserted that they differed with what they termed the radical construction put upon the Holy Writ by Dr. Buckley and his adherents.

Driven to Desperation.

A High Priced Fricassee.

Lord Alvanley, a noted wit and high liver in England a hundred years ago, insisted on having an apple tart on his dinner table every day throughout the year. On one occasion he paid a caterer $1,000 for a luncheon put up in a basket that sufficed a small boating party going up the Thames. Being one of a dozen men dining together at a London club where each was required to produce his own dish, Alvanley's, as the most expensive, won him the advantage of being entertained free of cost. This benefit was gained at an expense of $540, that being the price of a simple fricassee composed entirely of the "noix," or small pieces at each side of the back, taken from thirteen kinds of birds, among them being 100 snipe, 40 woodcocks and 20 pheasants—in all about 300 birds.

SUTOR JR.

MR FRED BURRELL'S FINE HORSE DROPPED DEAD.

Nelson Vanatta Had Just Driven the Animal a Mile in 2:27 at Idlewild Track.

Sutor, Jr., 2:24, a stallion owned by Fred Burrell, dropped dead on the Old Fort track Monday afternoon, heart disease being given as the cause. Nelson Vanatta, in whose charge the animal was, had driven him a mile in 2:27 and started out to repeat. After the first quarter the horse slowed up and it was seen that something was wrong. He was jogged back to the track gate and dropped over, dying without a struggle.

Sutor, Jr., was by Sutor, and was valued at $1500.

Baseball This Week at Idlewild.

The Idlewild team will have for opponents Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week the crack Lancaster team one of the strongest aggregations playing ball in Ohio.

This team broke even with the Idlewilds when the latter played there, and the series this week will decide definitely the relative merits of the two teams. One or two weak places in the Idlewild team will be strengthened and Manager Driscoll's players will present their strongest line up. It is not yet decided who will pitch the games, but this will be announced in due time.

On Sunday the Maroons of Columbus will be the attraction at the Park, and this game is attracting attention everywhere that base ball in Newark becomes the subject of conversation.

The Maroons have two victories to their credit over Denison University, and play a sharp clean game at the bat, in the field and on the bases.

Lancaster, O., June 9.—The locals defeated the crack Chillicothe Reds here Monday in an exciting game, Shafer, the crack south paw, let down in the seventh, allowing the home team to score four runs. Hazleton was invincible at critical times. The score:

Hits, Lancaster 6, Chillicothe 2; errors—Lancaster 1, Chillicothe 2; batteries, Hazleton and Mains; Shafer and Rivers.

NEWS WITHOUT PARALLEL.

There is ample justification for the claim made by The Chicago Record-Herald that its readers enjoy every day in the week, Sundays included, a news service that is without parallel in range and completeness. In addition to the independent news facilities of The Record-Herald, that paper receives the complete news service of the New York Herald and the Associated Press, and when it is considered that its news columns are supplemented by all the special features so popular with its thousands of readers it will be seen that The Record-Herald holds a unique place among the great newspapers of the United States.

LOST GAME FOOT BALL

TO DENISON THROUGH "DON'T CARE" PLAYING.

Newark Team "Cleaned Up" by Score of 12 to 1 on Beaver Field Monday Afternoon.

The uncertainty of the great national game of baseball is one of its attractive features, and it is this more than any other one thing, that gives the game its interest among all classes of sport lovers.

To see a club like the St. Louis Cardinals go in and wallop a team of the calibre of the Pittsburgh champions, shut them out and make them look like amateurs, is often a fact in the National League. The inferiority of the team which thus wins a lucky victory is never disputed, but it is attributed to the fortunes of the game.

There was an analogous exhibition given a large crowd on Beaver Field, Monday afternoon at Granville when Denison University defeated the Idlewild team by an overwhelming score of 12 to 1.

The Newark boys had beaten the strong Unions of Columbus on Sunday, playing a game which would beat anything in Ohio, and full of confidence they went to Granville to "make monkeys" of the college players.

This overconfidence was disastrous, and they returned to Newark with feathers drooping and a very shame-faced look.

Offord, Newark's pitcher in the seventh, began to burlesque the game. He lobbed them over the plate, and seemed to enjoy seeing them laced out for singles, doubles and triples. Seven hits were made, on which Denison scored six runs.

Offord is to blame for this kind of play, and in fact his work all afternoon was of the "don't care" order, which will never win him games and is not what people pay to see. He had instructions to take things easy and not exert himself, and he followed out these orders to the letter, in fact better than he did anything else.

Cubbison at third for Newark, was a weak spot in the infield, and it began to look as if he would not do. After all there is nothing that could have happened to the local team that will do more good, than Monday's defeat at the hands of a team which they can beat seven days in every week. It is a lesson that will take the chestiness out of the players, and teach them that they must be up and doing from the time the umpire calls play until the last man is out.

Chambers pitched a beautiful game and in fact, the entire Denison team deserves great credit for their, fast, snappy play against a team which clearly outclasses them. They were on their toes at all times and played the best game of which they are capable, which is a mighty good one. The score follows:

Denison.....12 16 3
Newark.....1 6 7
Batteries, Chambers and Webber; Offord and Ryan.

The June Bride.

It's getting so that when a man proposes to a maid (if she accepts) she peeps at him with blushes, half afraid. As though she did not want to say the "Yes" without some study. And first she hints that June's the month to marry anybody!

Now, why is it that ladies fair prefer the month of June?

Won't January do as well? Why, any man supposes That February is as good as March and April are.

And May—sometimes the first of May seems setting dates too far.

Of course if he should pop in June it's right enough to say That any of its thirty dates shall be the wedding day.

If it's July or August, though, September or October.

To wait till June is apt to make the man look rather eager.

November is a thankful month, and happy grooms remember Their brides as rarest Christmas gifts if wedded in December.

Now, congress might assist the men this choice of June to marry.

By law the months could each be June for those who wish to marry.

Changes in Football Rules.

New Haven, Conn., June 9.—The football rules committee, which held a meeting in Philadelphia on Sunday to consider a revision of rules, reached an agreement to make two alterations in the rules, according to a statement given out here Monday night by Walter Camp, chairman of the committee. Mr. Camp said:

"We practically agreed to make changes in the rules governing the number of men who are to be kept in the rush line, and with regard to the quarterback. We will draft a rule for next season which will require that between the two 25 yard lines, from one 25 yard line to the other, seven men will be required in the line. In other words that will prevent mass plays and heavy formations at the center of the field. Inside the 25 yards lines there will be no such requirement. The rule may be drafted in different words of course, but that is the substance of it.

"The rules will allow the quarterback in the same section of the field to run with the ball, provided he cross the line of scrimmage at least five yards from where it is put in play."

Woman Suffrage.

Governor Garvin of Rhode Island has put himself on record as a believer in woman suffrage. In a recent address before the Rhode Island Woman Suffrage association he said: "I think woman suffrage will be adopted in Rhode Island and in other New England states. It has been tried in other states and has worked well, and sooner or later it will prevail throughout the Union."

Commerce Currency.

The representative of a hardware firm seeking the other day to establish a trading connection in Yap, one of the islands in the Caroline group, found himself unable to trade owing to the extraordinary currency of the natives. The only money they use is a huge flint or limestone slab varying from the size of a dinner plate to that of a cart wheel.

ALL ABOUT THE KICKER

Some Facts Worth Knowing Concerning It.

(Copyright, 1903, by C. B. Lewis.)

THOUSANDS of people in Persia, India, Africa and other countries across the water are asking: "What is the Arizona Kicker? Who is it that runs the western half of the United States?" We propose to devote a column of space to answer these questions and post inquiries.

In the first place, the Kicker is the greatest weekly newspaper on earth. We founded it on the ruins of a eucalyptus and two old horse blankets, and yet the third number had scarcely been issued when a good share of the American continent began to tremble.

Our first issue consisted of only 150 copies, while our last had only a few copies of the billion dollar mark.

Our first press was made of planks and beams, and we worked it out of our office is now equipped with sixty-six rotary presses, each one of which is capable of turning out 1,000,000 copies an hour, and we employ 132 pressmen.

We had to run in debt for half a bundle of white paper for the first issue. The cost of the paper on which our last issue was printed was $253,284, and we paid for it in advance. Those rolls of paper, if pasted together, would reach sixteenth-century times around the earth and have enough to spare to print all the daily papers in America for a week.

Over 6,000 persons are employed in our office altogether, and the editorial staff numbers 540 genuses, who are paid from $500 to $1,000 per week salary.

In getting out an issue we use seven dictionaries, five encyclopedias, fifteen histories, forty family almanacs, over fifty biographies and something like 2,000 war maps.

It takes 180 men ten hours per day to open our mail and enter the subscriptions, and twice per day our money is taken to the bank in a four horse moving van. Our private vault at the bank is fifty feet long, twenty-two wide and eighteen high, and at the present writing it won't hold over three or four more bills.

Subscriptions are being received every two or three minutes from every part of the known world, and we keep a staff of forty-four linguists to read and interpret the various foreign letters. It takes 312 typesetting machines to set the type for each issue, and our staff of artists, each one of whom is under yearly contract, numbers 210.

As to the Kicker's political influence, we may modestly mention that it elected McKinley twice. It brought on the Spanish-American war and freed Cuba and licked Spain. It brought on the Boer war and licked the Boers. It has bluffed England, threatened Germany and made up faces at Russia. It has elected or downed over 200 members of congress and passed or defeated over 500 important measures.

The sultan of Turkey and the shah of Persia subscribe to it because they fear it. The Kicker bolshoos with mayors, sways governors and advises the president, and for six hours previous to each issue 700,000,000 people in America hold their breath and feel an uneasy movement of the earth.

The number of advertisements published in the Kicker last week was not far from 3,000,000,000, each one of which returned the advertiser 1,000 percent profit. Send your copy in early and avoid the rush.

That's about it in regard to the greatest paper ever created by human hands. Remit by draft, check or money order and don't attempt to work off any Confederate currency on us.

As to the owner, editor, proprietor and boss of the Arizona Kicker, his name is James Hellsso, commonly known as Jim. The name of Hellsso dates back to 4250 B. C. It is generally accented on the first syllable.

Our first ten years were passed in a cooper shop, our next ten in a cheese factory. Having then fitted ourselves for the editorial business, we came west and established the Kicker.

Our genius was acknowledged after we killed our third man, but was not fully recognized until our fourteenth was laid away.

We own the only private editorial graveyard in the world. We bury all of our victims at our own expense. We always ride at the head of the funeral procession. Our arsenal consists of two quick firing 6 pounders, one bomb mortar, one sea-coast gun, fifteen Winchester, eighteen revolvers and two dozen bowie knives, and we are prepared to turn loose at a moment's notice.

We are mayor, postmaster, senator, game warden, deputy United States marshal, colonel of militia, forger of a fire company, fish commissioner, leader of a church choir, owner of the only opera house and confidential adviser of the governor.

We are the It.

The Rocky mountains extend a trifle farther than we do, but that is a simple detail.

The United States might not go to smash in case of our death, but there is no doubt that war and panic would follow.

The world at large tried for several years to do without us, but she had to come to time at last. Our personal influence is now felt as much in Constantinople as in Givendham Gulch. We own the bey of Algiers just as much as we do Mark Hanna. There are would be imitators, but they are not a success. There is only one It, and we are the critter. Don't let your drug-gist sell you something "just as good." Demand the original and only take no other.

P. S.—We stop our sixty-six presses and 540 editors to announce that our circulation has gone up another billion and that we must add seventy-five more presses and 500 more editors to our outfit.

Later,—We have also been appointed notary public by the governor of Arizona.

Starting Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentonsville, Va. serves as example. He writes: "I had Bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began to taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by Frank D. Hall, druggist. Regular sizes 50c and $1.00.

Corn Breeding Fields.

In breeding corn a small field usually an acre in size is used. The land is prepared and the seed bed treated as for the ordinary field. They are usually about 120 hills long and thirty rows wide. Each row is planted from a separate ear. The barren stalks, poor stalks and all undesirable stalks, such as suckers, are removed before the tassels appear. The field is protected or isolated, so that no mixture can take place from other varieties or from any source. In the fall these rows are husked separately, and the seed for the next year's crop is selected from the rows giving the highest yields per acre, of best composition, with the least barren stalks and of the best type. In this way the yield per acre of the variety is increased, the quality improved and the type preserved and developed. By this plan we are able to give personal attention and direct selection to the individual stalk and ear, which would be impossible in a large field.—Cosmopolitan.

A Cool Soldier.

Remarkable for his self possession even in the most trying moments of battle was the famous Marshal MacMahon. One day he was dictating a letter to his secretary in the midst of an action when a shell from the enemy's camp fell directly upon his tent and exploded within a few feet. Pale with fright, the secretary sprang up, leaving his letter.

"What's the matter?" asked the marshal.

"The shell," gasped the frightened subordinate.

"And what has the shell to do with a letter you are writing? Go on with your work, sir."

DIVORCE GRANTED

Girl Bride Who Has Not Seen Her Husband Since The Wedding Day Given Decree by Judge Seward--A Novel Case in Court.

Judge Charles W. Seward, sitting in Chambers, Monday afternoon, annulled the marriage contract existing between May Herring and Clifford Herring. The plaintiff asked the decree of annulment on the grounds that neither she nor Herring were of legal age when the contract was entered into, and that they had never lived together as man and wife.

The young people were attending a performance of "Florodora" at the Grand Opera House in Cincinnati last Christmas eve, and on the spur of the moment, they crossed into Covington and were married. The case has been pending in the courts of Licking county for several months past, and as the defendant was under age, Frank A. Bolton was appointed guardian ad litem, so that the suit might have a standing in Court.

The decree was absolute and restores plaintiff to her maiden name, May Cherrington. The young woman is the daughter of C. Cherrington, a B. & O. baggage master, and lives with her parents in the Avalon. Mrs. Cherrington in speaking of the affair Monday afternoon said:

"We are much relieved now that our daughter has been given the decree, and wish to explain the matter to the public. May visited in Cincinnati during the holidays last year, and on the evening before Christmas attended the Grand Theatre in company with Mr. Herring and another young couple, friends of our daughter. During the evening Herring proposed marriage to May and was accepted. They went to the residence of the Baptist minister in Covington and were married, returning to the theatre to witness the rest of the play.

"Afterward Mrs. Herring (Miss Cherrington) went home fifth the young lady friend and never afterward saw her husband, as we learned of the marriage, went to Cincinnati and brought her to Newark the next evening.

"When we asked her why she accepted the proposal she said she did not know and that it was only done on the spur of the moment."

Mrs. Cherrington says the couple had known each other for years and went to school in Cincinnati together. They never were sweethearts, and after coming to Newark the young lady corresponded some with Herring, but he never visited the Cherringtons in their home, and after their marriage they never lived together as man and wife.

Class Song.

Words by Homer Jones, Music by N. B. Yearlley.

We now stand alone in sorrow,
For our schooldays soon will pass,
Thinking of the dawning morrow
When we sever from our class;
And, departing on life's journey,
Little dreaming of the strife

We must face before completing
What awaits us yet in life.
In preparing for life's battle,
Have we done our very best
Will our lessons be remembered?
Need we take that failing rest?

We may trust in Him above us,
Who has promised hope to all.
Leaving deeds to be recorded
Should our lives be not all sunshine,
And our plans be cut in twain,
May we never be discouraged;

For our fight is not in vain;
We have learned both truth and honor
And our lessons will obey,
'Though we leave our happy school-days

For behind Commencement Day,
The credit of the class day exercises belongs wholly to the members of the Senior class, as the faculty had very little to do with arranging the program.
